The Readjuster organization in Va. is now the finest ever known in the State. The people are everywhere awake and aroused. The whole combined party may be said to be at work, and the Readjuster victory will be the finest yet won. Gen. Mahone as the party Chairman, has, with the hand of a consumate leader perfected the most compact and efficient campaign of the period. Our gains are really surprising to those who have not the opportunity Ring-Funders. And that looks to us a of viewing the field. The enemy-the same old Funder Bourbon party, reinforced by the Masseyltes, are everywhere in confusion and will shou be in disas-stump for Wise and Hooper the Rend-to have passed over his head be is uptrons rout. election was an endorsement of it. Secondly: Big Four-ism and Funderism were concecting an alliance and no one could then foresee what might be the result. The first command of the people liable and willing to be captured by any was that the Legislature should settle the debt question. It was at once apparent that if Col. Fulkerson and Mr. Massey could succeed in their purpose to whole Big Four business, they might have acted differently. At any rate the Readjuster people are not grumbling about this thing. In less than sixty days the caucus action will be endorsed by a thunder clap of applause that will be understood and appreciated by all those who have gone into coalition with the Funder party.

The Richmond State announces that Gov. Cameron and Senator Mahone are to take the Stump in this campaign. We know nothing as to the truth or untruth of the rumor, but this we do state, that the Readjusters have no idea whatever of allowing this campaign to go by default. The Massey bolt and the base betraval of the Big Four will not be endorsed by the Readjusters of Va. The people will be informed of their base apostacy and the facts shall go to the public. The State can bet its dollar that there will be light on this subject and it The microscopical examination of there will be light on this subject and it Guiteau's brain, although it shows that does not matter whether the Governor and the Senator take the field or not.

Wise and the Editor of this paper were recently in those counties the complaints were so loud and so numerous that they determined to bring the matter to the attention of Senator Mahone. The result will be that some remedy will be afforded, as the people will soon see.

Senator Mahone has also had a route with semi-weekly service established from Bickley's mills in Russell to Osborn's Ford in Scott county, and it will soon be in actual operation. We have never had a Senator so fully alive to the calls and the wants of the people and his great good sense is manifested in a manner that means business.

The Virginian advertises a "circus coming." If he can do so he will be there. This the Readjuster organization. These men when Col. Fulkerson was nominated by the party, were asked by him to Senator D. F. Bailey and I. C. Fowler take the stump in his behalf and they tacked for stumping for Bowen. All right; the Readjusters will see who is the grand "summersaultist." The Col. in kerson are getting the Debt settlement his Abingdon speech denounced or atrather mixed. Col. Fulkerson says the tacked nearly every body except Massey, the Big 4, the Funders and the at par. The Virginian says at Socison the "Abingdon Ring" as he has for 12 years used this expression. Against these he on this question. But as they appear had not one word. The Readjusters were amazed that the Red Fox should make a speech at Abingdon in which he had nothing to say against the Funders at par in the R. Bill, and consol bonds and the Ring; they held their breath a are funded a much lower rate than the bit, then cast side glances at each other and exclaimed "this is the summersault of the decade! "

It shall be in no offensive sense that we shall treat the Virginian as Col. Fulkerson. There is no other way in which we can with due brevity treat the case. As the Col. seems auxious to carricature the Nawa as a summersaultist and all that sort of thing, we shall in our next issue examine into the Col's, case and see what he has to boast of in the way of consistency.

We have only time in to days issue to call attention to the fact that the Readsee the day when Col. Fulkerson desires and such game as he can trap, holding and expects the vote of the Abingdon intercourse with no man and hiding in little like a summersault.

The howls of many that greeted such colored men as Dawson and Cochran showed too plainly that many very many of the colored people have not been improved or advanced by freedom, but that in heart and mind they are still slaves, shrewd and unserupulous master—they are still for sale. We begin to think their advancement, if not a failure, at least a very slow process.

We are satisfied from that night's ex-Massey could succeed in their purpose to defeat the caucus, the whole question and the entire party were at sea again. It was decided to pass the bill and put it quickly in operation before any such scheme could be matured. Had the caucus been able to foresee the present complete break down and collapse of this whole Big Four business, they might him both to his bead and heart, but he will fail breause the majority of his race have no inherent love for civil liberty, no conception of the blessing of free govern-ment, who had as lief self their vote as their chickens. He and others of his col-or and class are far shead of the masses of his people. There is no excuse for much of their ignorance and its explana-tion is to be found in the advice of Roane here, "go against the men and measures advocated by the Lynchburg press."

A race that will not improve will not keep up, is always worked out, ground down, driven away by the press of improvement and the march of trade and usiness. Mr. Dawson must have felt, Friday night like the prophet who bewailed his miserable race, "Ephraim is joined to his idols let him alone."
